

Black Women's Network

Presents

Preserve Your Legacy, Not Just Your Money

In Celebration of Women's History Month and in furtherance of Black Economic Empowerment

Join us at a Legacy Wealth Planning seminar conducted by Attorney Caprice L. Collins, and learn how planning for the future can benefit you and your family.

- Avoid Probate Delays and Expenses and Leave a Financial and Value-Based Legacy!
- Preserve Your Money From Irresponsible Behavior, Divorce and Lawsuits of Your Heirs!
- Protect Your Family from Losing Their Inheritance from a Surviving Spouse in the case of remarriage through "Remarriage Protection".
- Save Estate Taxes – Give Your Money to Your Family and NOT to IRS or California!

Saturday, March 13, 2010 at 10:30 a.m.

Seminar will be presented at the

VETERANS BUILDING

330 Centinela Avenue, Inglewood, CA 90302

Light Refreshments Will Be Served

Caprice L. Collins
Attorney at Law
Collins Law Group

Caprice L. Collins is a top rated Harvard Law School trained attorney, fellow alumni with President Barack Obama and a noted speaker on Living Trusts and Estate Planning. Ms. Collins' law practice is devoted exclusively to Estate/Business Planning and Trust Administration. She is the only Central Los Angeles/South Bay member of the American Academy of Estate Planning Attorneys, a distinguished organization of attorneys recognized by Money Magazine and Suze Orman as a first choice for Estate Planning legal services. Her seminars are said to be "entertaining and easy-to-understand."

Seating Is Limited, So Call Now to Register! 310-677-9787 ext. 5

Open to the Public All Are Welcome! - www.blackwomensnetwork.net